

Much Instruction From Little Reading, Vol. 2: Or Extracts From Some of the Most Approved Authors (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Much Instruction From Little Reading, Vol. 2: Or Extracts From Some of the Most Approved Authors Various methods have been employed, at different periods, and by different persons, to convey useful knowledge to mankind. The knowledge most useful and most important to man, is that of morals and religion. These sciences not only afford the most pleasant and elevating subjects of meditation, but evidently possess a very powerful influence over human happiness, both in the life which now is, and in that which is to come.
